With the added baggage, recurring toilet breaks, and storage pockets stuffed with snack wrappers and stones from their favourite beach...

Camping with young children simply requires more. Even so, the only time your kids should be added weight on your back on an outdoor adventure is if they're too tired to walk the extra mile!

This week, family-man-Ben and power-mum-Lauren detail what to pack, where to pull-in, and the principles to pitch from a young age. Just like your little ones, this episode packs a big punch!

Bundle the camp clobber, buckle in your rugged cherubs, and watch or listen here!
